

PILATUS BUSINESS AIRCRAFT LTD APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAM

 PILATUS

»» BROOMFIELD, COLORADO

Based in Broomfield, Colorado, Pilatus Business Aircraft Ltd was founded in 1996 and is responsible for marketing, sales, and service for all PC-12 and PC-24 aircraft produced for delivery to North and South America. A new custom-designed facility features state-of-the-art fabrication and installation shops, spare parts inventory to support the award-winning service network, and offices for technical support and business management groups. Apply for an apprenticeship with Pilatus and explore new career pathways and gain valuable skills for professional and personal advancement!

Fly to the future with us!

Contact: Kaitlin West, HR Program Administrator

Phone: +1 303 410 2750

Email: apprenticeship.us@pilatus-aircraft.com

- On the job and earn while you learn training
- Tuition and books are paid for by Pilatus
- Progressive wage schedule and paid time off
- Healthcare coverage and 401(k) retirement plan match
- Certificate of Completion from the U.S. Department of Labor

»» LOGISTICS COORDINATOR (2 Years)

Accept aircraft materials and other goods and inspect them in terms of quantity and quality. Receive the goods into stock and perform warehouse controls. Pick out and pack spare parts for dispatch to customers. Learn how to operate the warehouse equipment and develop the skills required to manage domestic and international transport options. Rotate through other departments to acquire the know-how and skills to perform supply chain management tasks.

Instruction

On-the-job learning: 3,000 hours

Related coursework: 180 hours

School location: Front Range Community College

Conditions

- High school diploma or equivalent
- Excellent organizational skills and strong attention to detail
- Willingness to learn new skills during on-the-job training
- Professional work environment
- Structured step-by-step training

»» AIRCRAFT INTERIOR TECHNICIAN (3 Years)

Produce interior fittings for the PC-12 and PC-24 using leather and fabric and prepare them for installation. Finish various components and add the final touches. Produce and assemble aircraft upholstery and seats according to specifications using different tools and machines. Assist with installing interior components in our aircraft, learn the basics of wiring, and perform functional checks. Receive training in aircraft ground handling and safety.

Instruction

On-the-job learning: 4,000 hours

Related coursework: 288 hours

School location: Front Range Community College

Conditions

- High school diploma or equivalent
- Attention on high quality and detailed work
- Patience and willingness to learn new skills
- Collaborative communication
- Technical and analytical focus

Pilatus Business Aircraft Ltd

12300 Pilatus Way, Broomfield, CO 80021, USA

Phone +1 303 465 9099

www.pilatus-aircraft.com

Member of the Pilatus Group